WOOD, Mike
February 25th, 2009

Its been a year since you left us, and how we've missed you so. We miss your laugh, and your smile and wonder why you had to go. We've missed your loving and caring way and how you made us feel. We wished that when we woke up that all of this wasn't real. We were so lucky to call You ours and the memories will never fade. And stronger now we are this family that You made. We know You are watching over us, and You will be forever in our hearts.

Love Anne, Susan, Dave and Family

CARDS OF THANKS

SHEA - We would like to express our sincere thanks for floral tributes, cards and donations. Visitation of our relatives, friends and neighbours during the recent loss of our dearly loved Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother, Ellen Christina (Nellie) Hammond Shea. Special thanks to the Extendicare Halton Hills, Ballinfad Unit and Emergency Unit of Georgetown Hospital for her care. Rev. Paul Ivany of Norval United Church, George Smith and Gayle Robinson for their scriptures and wonderful service. The J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home for their very kind services. These acts of kindness will always be remembered. Nellie was a special lady who gave herself to her community, church, family and friends. Even living in the nursing home for many years she still was part of all that she loved.

The Howse and Shea Families

FINNIGAN - The family of the late Bill Finnigan would like to thank all our family, friends and neighbours for their unending love and support during the devastating loss of our Husband, Dad and great friend to many. An extra 'thank you' to the ones who stood by us on that agonizing Saturday. Heart felt gratitude to the doctors and nurses for their kindness and compassion on that day. All the gifts of food, flowers, emails, cards and memorial donations will never be forgotten. Our deepest appreciation to Frs. Peter and Morris for the comforting funeral mass and cemetery service. Great gratitude to Toby and everyone at Jones' Funeral Home for your true kindness and guidance at a most difficult time. Our prayers and God's blessings to all.

Anna, Kati and Michael
