Landscapes. Portraits. Still lifes. Mixed media art. Monotypes. These were just a few of the different types of art on display at the Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre during the annual winter show of the Credit Valley Artisans' Palette and Pencil Guild. The guild is a collection of talented local artists who meet once a week to share, inspire and encourage each other. They gathered at the Gallery on February 7 to kick off their show, which runs until March 1. For more information on the Credit Valley Artisans and its four guilds, visit www.creditvalleyartisans.com.

Once a month, local businesspeople gather to catch up, share ideas and network at the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce's Business After Hours. Last month's gathering took place at Bennett Village, Georgetown's newest seniors-only condominium facility. Attendees explored the new building and welcomed new members to the Chamber of Commerce.
