

Churches unite on Friday for World Day of Prayer

The 2010 World Day of Prayer service will be held on Friday (March 5), 7:30 p.m. at the Georgetown Christian Reformed Church, 11611 Trafalgar Rd.

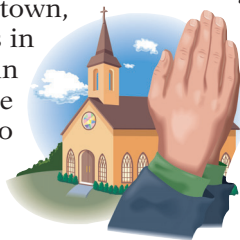

Everyone is invited to hear speaker Henriette Thompson of Georgetown, who has worked for many years in international development and in ecumenical mission and justice work. Her work has taken her to all regions of the world, but primarily to Africa.

This year, the women of Cameroon has written the prayer service with the theme, Let Everything That Has Breath Praise God. Everyone is welcome to attend and learn more about Cameroon and its unique culture and heritage.

Cameroon, with more than 240 ethnic groups, is located in central Africa, above the equator at the extreme end of the Gulf of Guinea, on the Atlantic Ocean side. It is often described as "Africa in miniature" with a striking variety of landscapes.

The World Day of Prayer is observed annual on the first Friday in March. It is an invitation for Christians to pause and pray together ecumenically. It is sponsored by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada and its international counterparts and is celebrated in more than 170 countries around the world.

GDHS actors to perform at Sears Festival

Georgetown District High School students will perform The Nature and Purpose of the Universe at this year's Halton Sears Festival tomorrow (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. at Nelson High School, 4181 New St. in Burlington. Tickets for the public are $10; available at the door.

GDHS students Andrew Kirkwood and Jillian Pike will direct the Christopher Durang play, a black comedy about society's flaws and desires and asks the question, 'Why do bad things happen to good people?' This play is for mature audiences only due to the mature language and subject matter.

The 64th Sears Drama Festival involves more than 12,000 students from about 350 schools in Ontario, with competitions at district (Halton), regional and provincial levels. Alumni have included David Cronenberg, Rachel McAdams and Margot Kidder.

And there's more...

Blue Monday

During March, visit the Museum to see our special Blue Monday exhibit. Dressed by women everywhere, before the turn of the century, laundry day was known as "Blue Monday." The term refers to the bluing agent used in rinse water, and the drudgery involved in the washing process.

This March, join us at the Halton Region Museum to welcome spring!
