“In Honour of Those Who Served in the Cause of Peace and Freedom”

Thursday May 6th, 2010

This year we celebrate the 65th Anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE Day)

A Legacy For Our Children

Canada's contribution to World Peace and Freedom is a proud legacy to inspire children as they develop into the leaders of the future. Candlelight Tributes are Commemorative ceremonies, which inspire and engage young Canadians in learning about Canada's stellar military history and our community's local history, heritage, hero's and Veterans.

Candlelight Tributes honour and recognize the sacrifices and achievements of all those who served overseas and on the home front, in the cause of Peace and Freedom.

Canada Remembers

Throughout the year Canadians will continue to celebrate, honour, remember and teach our youth about the contributions and sacrifices of our Veterans who served their Country during the First World War, the Second World War, the Korean War, peacekeeping operations, Afghanistan and other military conflicts.

Passing the Torch of Remembrance

The Committee members of the Georgetown Candlelight Tributes plan these annual commemorative ceremonies. The date has been chosen because of the relationship to military history celebrating Victory in Europe (VE Day) and the significance for our community to come together to bring much deserved recognition and pay tribute to our Veterans.

During the day 1,400 students from 19 schools, accompanied by Veterans will place candles during ceremonies in Georgetown (10:00 a.m. at Remembrance Park) and in Glen Williams (1:00 p.m. at the Cenotaph) in a symbolic Passing of the Torch of Remembrance. The candles signify “peace AND freedom” we enjoy as Canadians.

In the evening, a “Silent Walk” starting at 6:30 p.m. from the Royal Canadian Legion Br. 120 and ending at Remembrance Park, will include all members of the community to honour Veterans by placing candles at the Cenotaph. Following the “Silent Walk” there will be a reception at the Legion of light refreshments thereby affording some time to socialize with our Veterans.

For more information contact: Barry Timleck 905-877-6198. Candles are available at many locations for $5.00 each.
