Members of 4th Georgetown Scouting have been active collecting and preparing various items for students at a school for the deaf that was destroyed in Haiti in the recent earthquake. Georgetown scouts collected both school and hygiene items. Because there is no garbage pickup available in Haiti, they also removed all the original packaging and placed the items in zip-lock bags. Helping with the packing were (from left) Sara Boyd of 4th Georgetown Scouts, Tammy Mino, leader of 4th Georgetown Beavers, Jack Mino of 4th Georgetown Scouts and Leslie Webb of 4th Georgetown Venturers Company.
