COMMUNITY BASED STRATEGIC PLAN
Notice of Town Hall Meetings

IMAGINE CALEDON

The Town of Caledon is working on an exciting project to establish a Community-Based Strategic Plan and Vision. This project will lay the foundation for Caledon's sustainable and vibrant future and will guide us 10 years into the future - this plan will establish a vision, goals and strategies. Over the past few months, we have been busy working with members of the community to get ideas for the future of Caledon and we would like to share what we have heard with you and what the Strategic Plan is beginning to look like. This is also the second round of Town Hall meetings for this project.

We need your help in developing this plan!
You are invited to a Town Hall meeting to work through the goals, strategies and actions gathered to date, to identify gaps and discuss priorities. We will also be unveiling the winners of the Youth Art Contest at these meetings.

Organic food wanted for local business's weekend drive

Halton Hills are urged to bring organic food donations for the Georgetown Bread Basket to Chantal Garneau's Open House Weekend.

The event, to celebrate Garneau's second anniversary of her 66 Main St. S. studio, where she helps individuals connect to their innate intuition, wisdom, and healing abilities, is being held on Friday, March 19 and Saturday, March 20, 3-8 p.m. each day.

Local entrepreneurs have been invited to showcase their creations at her studio over the two days and each of these participants donated an item for a raffle in support of the Georgetown Bread Basket. Residents attending the Open House will get a raffle ticket for every $3 or organic food item donated.

Participating entrepreneurs are all young women (between the ages of 30 and 35) who all have built a business around their passion.

"I think it's very interesting that we all found a way to make our passion our business, whether it's baking, making jewelry, being an artist or giving massages. We all also focus on health and well being," said Garneau. "For us it's about quality of life and being healthy in all aspects of ourselves. This is why we chose to do a food drive to raise healthy organic food. We believe the food bank gets enough Kraft dinner and other low nutrient foods so we want to focus on gifting nourishing foods. This very much reflects the nature of our businesses, which are to nourish various aspects of the individual."

Garneau can be reached at 905-783-8853 or www.chantalgarneau.com. For the official Open House invitation visit http://eepurl.com/j4_6
