MARITA CASSIDY & DEBRA McILVENNA

Culligan Water Treatment

With all the controversy surrounding bottled water lately, many people are looking for drinking water options that are less expensive and more environmentally friendly. That's where Culligan water consultants Marita Cassidy and Debra McIlvenna come in.

For more than 30 years, Culligan has been helping the people of Halton Hills with all their water needs. The business sells, installs and services water systems - such as super high efficiency water softeners, iron filters, U.V. disinfection systems and reverse osmosis drinking water systems on municipal water or well water.

Due to Halton Hills' notoriously hard water, Culligan's most popular items right now are our global smart sensor water softener and our Aqua Clear Specialty reverse osmosis drinking water system, which removes 99 per cent of unwanted water impurities and contaminates like sodium and minerals.

Helping customers get pure, healthy water is a great source of satisfaction for Marita, Debra and the Culligan family.

"We like that we improve the quality of life in the home with regards to their water and we are available at the customer's convenience," both Marita and Debra say - "They love meeting their neighbours and being able to solve their water needs."

PAULETTE CORMIER

Rainbow Connections Autism Consulting

Paulette Cormier's journey with autism began when her son was diagnosed with the disorder at three years old. After trying many different treatments and programs, Paulette learned about Relationship Development Intervention (RDI®), a parent-based program that shows families how to integrate therapy into their everyday lives. She saw amazing results, which encouraged her to become a Certified RDI® Program Consultant and start Rainbow Connections Autism Consulting in 2006.

Paulette combines her RDI® training with her teaching background to deliver a step-by-step curriculum that targets deficits of autism previously thought untreatable. Education includes learning the foundations of the program, tools to normalize family life, and communication and interaction strategies to help children think for themselves.

Paulette meets with parents at least twice a month in person or via web conferencing to monitor progress, model strategies, and troubleshoot problems. In between meetings, parents video their work with their child so she can provide feedback to continuously move progress forward.

"RDI® not only helps the child progress, it also benefits the whole family," she says. "It helps parents get back to being parents of kids and not parents of kids with special needs."

SHARI ROBINSON

Sparkle Your Space

When Shari Robinson opened Sparkle Your Space in 2005, she cleaned every home on her own. "I honestly didn't think anyone would put the care into cleaning the way I do, so I never wanted to hire anyone," Shari says.

Before she knew it, she had more clients than she could physically handle. She hired her first girl and trained her to clean the way that she does. Now Shari has a team of ten amazing ladies who will clean your home perfectly.

Sparkle Your Space specializes in thorough cleaning from ceiling to floor and we never miss a spot. Our professionally trained teams start by doing a full spring-cleaning of your home. They get your home as perfectly clean as possible and then maintain that "spring-cleaning look" on your regularly scheduled cleaning day.

For the last two years, Sparkle Your Space has won the Readers' Choice Award for favourite house cleaning for Georgetown & Acton.

"We all work very hard. We're dedicated and committed to providing our customers with only high quality service," Shari says. "We believe the results that we produce and the attention we put towards detail and perfection will far exceed your expectations. We want your home to sparkle.
