

Bears' rally fall short

with 23, to close the gap to six heading into the final quarter.

"The difference was we started taking advantage of our height and outrebounding them," Brown said.

Hollywood's basket with 1:25 remaining narrowed the gap to 33-28. Though instructed by coach Cin Johnston to pass the ball and kill time off the clock, the Hawks looked for the basket to put away their rivals and when it rattled off the rim, St. Brigid took the ball down the court and cut the lead to 33-30 with 35 seconds remaining.

St. Brigid would capitalize once after a couple of missed foul shots by the Hawks, pulling within one with nine seconds to play. The Bears then tracked down a stray inbound pass and got one last shot off, but it sailed over the rim as the Hawks held on for their eighth North Halton title in the last 10 years. For St. Brigid, which also advances to the Halton tournament, it was their third loss by two points or less in the North Halton final.

The Hawks will now look to defend the Halton title they won last year.

Raiders battle Colts

A victory over the visiting Barrie Colts on Tuesday night has extended the season of Georgetown's minor midget AA Raiders for another game.

The teams have won two games each in their best-of-5 Ontario Minor Hockey Association minor midget BB series heading into game five tonight (Thursday) in Barrie. If a sixth game is needed, Georgetown would host it Saturday.

Golden boy

Artistic gymnast Eric Shieh of Georgetown earned seven medals, including five of the golden variety, at the recent provincial qualifying meet in Mississauga. The 13-year-old Shieh finished first in the Level 4 category for the vault, parallel bars, high bar, rings and the all-around standings, while also picking up a silver and bronze. Shieh trains with Gymnastics Mississauga.
