

佛笑樓

HOUSE OF BUDDHA RESTAURANT

HOUSE OF BUDDHA

53 Main Street South
in Historic Downtown Georgetown

Lunch Specials

- Choice of Spring Roll, Egg Roll or Deep Fried Wonton
- Chicken Egg Drop or Hot & Sour Soup
- Vegetable Fried Rice or Steamed Rice
- Main Course

Starting from $6.25

Voted Favourite Chinese Restaurant 10 years in a row

Discover a World of Fine Chinese Cuisine.

We specialize in Cantonese & Szechuan Chinese Food

- Try Our
- Lemon Chicken
 - Chicken with Snow Peas
 - Beef with Chinese Greens
 - Garlic Prawns
 - Peking Spareribs
 - Sweet & Sour Shrimp
 - Beef Broccoli
 - Almond Chicken

Dine in or Fast Take Out Service
905-873-1669

www.9058731669.yip.ca

Licensed LCBO

Emma Manuel and Emma Falls get ready to perform "Ballet Hoe Down."

Strictly Dance Showcase

LEFT: Holly Mounstevan, Isabel Coady, Erika Peter, Kate Hatfield, Felicia Makos, Leah Johansen, Lindsay Hatfield, Kathleen McBarron, Charlotte Beauchamp, Megan Jukes, Lauren Peter and Zoe George get silly backstage before performing "Awakening the Goddess."

Musical theatre, ballet, jazz, pointe, modern dance and more came together at the John Elliott Theatre for Strictly Dance's annual showcase. The dancers performed their routines before an excited crowd of friends and family, who showed their appreciation with cheers, whistles and applause. Bravo, Strictly Dance!

Photos by Ron Stiel

Holly Mounstevan performs the musical theatre number "He Called Me."

Bennett Centre New Horizons Program

The Bennett Health Care Centre was alive with the sound of music on March 21 when the Timeless Melody Singers dropped by to perform a selection of classic songs. The concert kicked off the Bennett Centre's New Horizons for Seniors Program, which brings music, art and activities to the centre's residents. And what a great start it was! Toes were tapping, heads were bobbing and voices were singing along with the talented choir.

Photos by Andrea Lefebvre

FAR LEFT: The choir looks on as Nora Savage and Margaret Cooper take a spin around the dance floor.

LEFT: Bennett Centre resident Chrissy cuts a rug with the centre's program manager Paul Parks.

ABOVE RIGHT: The choir performed a variety of favourite songs for the crowd.

BELOW RIGHT: Bennett Centre residents Flo, Bernice, Rita, Margaret and Margaret enjoy the music.

