

Out & About

Justyna Cox gives a big thumbs up to the Inside Ride.

LEFT: It was a sad day at In Focus when we said goodbye to Ron Stiel, our advertising sales rep and intrepid photographer. For three years, Ron was the driving force behind this newspaper and we wish him all the best in the future. Thanks, Ron!
RIGHT: Twelve-year-old Malory Lang debuted a new 'do this spring after she cut off 10 inches of her hair to donate to Angel Hair for Kids. Rod Alhindi from Salon Marcel did the honours.

LEFT: The Select Major Pee Wee Raiders were pretty in pink when they presented a cheque for $2,132 to the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation. The team raised money during the recent Pink in the Rink fundraiser at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex.

Christ the King Catholic Secondary School recently hosted an Inside Ride and a number of other activities in order to raise funds for a classmate who is battling cancer. Moriah Kolenda, who recently had a leg amputated due to the disease, was able to visit her school to see first-hand the hard work of CtK students and teachers, who raised a record amount of about $29,000. Seventy-eight teams of six pedaled on stationary bikes during the day for the Coast to Coast Against Cancer Foundation, which has set out to fight childhood cancers. Photos by Eamonn Maher
