A 21-year-old Mississauga man is facing numerous charges following an early-morning crash in Acton Saturday that left a Campbellville man dead and an Erin teenager in hospital in critical condition.

Two 20-year-old Georgetown women received non-life threatening injuries in the crash and on Monday afternoon remained in a Hamilton area hospital.

Police did not release the names of the occupants in the car, except for the driver and male passenger from Mississauga who are both facing charges.

Halton Police say the collision occurred about

2:50 a.m. Saturday when a Hyundai Sonata driven by the 21-year-old Mississauga man westbound on Queen Street in Acton failed to navigate an S-bend at Young St., left the road, and struck a tree.

The 22-year-old Campbellville man, who was in the front passenger seat of the vehicle, died from his
