Golf Tournament is set for Saturday, June 12, and Tea at the Manor, is slated for Saturday, June 26 at a Limehouse home.

The golf tournament will be at Streetsville Glen Golf Club with an 8 a.m. shotgun start. It will include a buffet lunch, various contests and prizes. The cost per player for 18 holes, including a cart, is $135. Registrants will receive a tax receipt for a portion of their fee.

For more information check out www.golfunited.ca. Registration and general information can be found on the website. For sponsorship information, or to donate prizes to the event, call the United Way of Halton Hills office at 905-877-3066.

Tea at the Manor will consist of a topiary garden tour, guided tours on the wooded trails, musicians, a fashion show, gardening demos, tour of the conservatory, and a strawberry social at a spectacular home in Limehouse.

Tickets for that event will go on sale in the early spring. Call the United Way office at the above number for information or to purchase tickets.

Sun shines less brightly on hospital CEO

The highest earning public sector official in Halton— John Oliver, president and CEO of Halton Healthcare Services— took in $500,000 in salary and taxable benefits in 2009, more than a quarter less than he received in 2008 according to the Province's "Sunshine List".
