

Focusing on "Business of the Month"

Every month, Chamber members and local residents have the opportunity to nominate a local business for the Chamber's Business of the Month award. The criteria for selection are: quality of service, unique products, and/or civic involvement which benefits the community. Companies are selected regardless of Chamber membership, and the Chamber presents each of the recipients with a plaque.

By Tracey Wellon and Cor Baarda

The recipients for this quarter are: Mattina's Cucina (January), Country Reflections (February), and North Halton Roofing (March). Congratulations to all of you!

Ten years and 80% repeat business; they know the quality of the food and service is what we are looking for. It would be unusual not to speak to Paul at each visit or have Sherri be your server. Their generosity doesn't stop, whether it is sponsoring a child, doing fundraisers or teaching. They believe in family and friends and count their customers among them.

Shows the way to classes and speakers on self improvement as well as soothing the soul and seeking lost ones. Their products range from semi-precious stones and jewellery to books and tapes to Bradford Exchange collectibles. There is no pressure while there, but they will offer advice if you seek it. Expanding services for the well being of their customers is a top priority.

George and Brenda Vanderleest have owned North Halton Roofing since 1985; George has been roofing much longer which is apparent with all his roofing projects. In the roofing business, the only way to differentiate your business from the competition is through service that goes beyond what the customer expects. It means giving honest answers, fair prices for quality of work performed, timely completion and a clean and safe site for the safety of our workers and homeowners. North Halton Roofing only retains experienced and dedicated employees and have an amazing team experience of over 100 years. This is the second time North Halton Roofing has been awarded the "Business of the Month" Congratulations on providing our community with quality service and also for celebrating 25 years of business this year.
