

Event at HQ May 8

Local families can get a free ride to Halton's annual Police Day

The 11th annual Halton Regional Police Service (HRPS) Police Day is fast approaching and this year participation for Halton Hills residents has been made easier.

First Student Bus Transportation will be providing transportation to and from the Saturday, May 8 event at HRPS headquarters (1151 Bronte Rd. in Oakville) for Acton and Georgetown families free of charge.

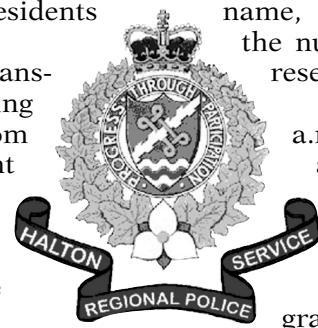

Families wishing to take part in the family festival and celebration of policing by using the bus service should pre-register by Tuesday, May 4 by contacting Const. Maureen Andrew at 905-878-5511 ext. 2109 or e-mail maureen.andrew@haltonpolice.ca.

Const. Andrew requires family name, contact information and the number of bus seats to be reserved.

The Police Day will run 10 a.m.-2 p.m. (rain or shine) and will feature a variety of events from a 9-1-1 simulator, interactive displays, MasoniChIP child identification program, magician Aaron Paterson, musician Mary Lambert, live demonstrations, children's rides, the HRPS Pipe & Drum Corps, Children's Safety Village and rides.

Admission is free and there is limited parking on-site. No pets please.
