Down memory lane

Former classmates Betty Holmes (left) and Evelyn McCallum check out the photos from their years at Acton Public School (now Robert Little Public School) at the school's 150th anniversary open house. Past and present students and staff flocked to School Lane to celebrate this milestone with a weekend-long anniversary bash that included a benefit concert by Canadian folk singer Valdy, an open house, the unveiling of the school's new sign and the grand opening of the Roots and Wings Hall of Memories. (left) Principal Bob Tadman rings the bell to welcome visitors to the open house. Photos by Andrea Lefebvre
