Local man charged in home invasion

A Georgetown man was among three men charged when Toronto Police responded to a call for a home invasion in the Huntley St./Bloor St. E. area last Monday.

Police were called to the home about 6:30 p.m.

As a result of investigation, police allege two men forced their way into an apartment on Huntley St. and attempted to steal the victim's belongings. Police were called and two men were arrested in connection with the incident, but while they were there they found a clandestine drug lab in the victim's apartment and seized a quantity of GHB, ecstasy and methamphetamine. The victim was also arrested.

Charged with robbery, assault bodily harm, assault with weapon, assault and fail to appear in court is Daniel Noguera, 24, of Georgetown.

Also charged with robbery, assault bodily harm, assault with weapon, assault, and fail to appear in court is Dustin Hanson, 20, of Toronto. Orunav Kabir, 22, of Toronto, has been charged with produce controlled substance, four counts of possession for the purpose controlled substance, possession for the purpose marijuana.
