Lyons replaces Burke behind bench

Local resident Gord Lyons, the former Halton Hills Minor Lacrosse president, is the new assistant coach after Bob Burke took on the general manager's duties for Brampton Jr. A.

"We've replaced experience with experience," McCauley added.

"Gordie is no stranger to the kids from minor lacrosse and he played with Bob for my father when they won the Mann Cup in Brampton. He's a really passionate guy and I worked with him with the midgets last year at provincials and it was just a natural fit."

Halton Hills' division rival, the Mimico Mountaineers, are slated to host the Founders Cup national Jr. B championship tournament in August.

There was a bit of reshuffling in the off-season within the OLA Jr. B East Conference as newcomer Toronto Beaches joins the Bulldogs, Mimico and Mississauga in the South East Division, with Markham moving to the Mid East.

ATHLETES of the week

Acton High School		Christ the King		G.D.H.S
Jenn Baker	Malcolm Stanley	Calvan Lee	Marc Laforet	Amy Pond	Pete Phaunpa

Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Jenn Baker and Malcolm Stanley. Baker, who plays wing on the senior Bearcats basketball team, was chosen for her improved defense and shooting during the season. Stanley, a power and right side for the Bearcats senior volleyball team, was selected for his game play, setting and spiking, which helped the team compete at OFFSA.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Amy Pond and Pete Phaunpa. Both are members of the Rebels badminton team. Pond was chosen for her good showing in the A Flight finals, in the junior singles, while Phaunpa was selected for finishing first at the CiK tournament and now advances to the Haltons.

Christ the King Catholic High School Athletes of the Week are Calvan Lee and Marc Laforet. Lee, a member of the Jaguars badminton team, was chosen for his strong showing in the senior singles division. Laforet, a member of the Jaguars swim team, was cited for his efforts at OFSAA, bringing home a gold in the 50 fly division, and silver in the 100 IM.
