

Something's fishy

The Terra Cotta Conservation Area on Winston Churchill Blvd. recently held its grand re-opening and among the invited guests was Billy Bass (Shawn Verge) who was checked out by St. John Ambulance members Sherry Liu and Al Blundell. Among the events were wagon rides, nature hikes, a tree nursery tour, nature displays and maple syrup making demonstrations. For information about the conservation area call 905-877-1120.

Two facing impaired charges

A Milton man is facing charges after a minor collision in the parking lot at Shoeless Joe's in Georgetown about 8 p.m. Sunday.

Following the collision the driver fled the scene without notifying anyone. A witness who had seen the collision notified Halton Police, who went to the home of the owner of the vehicle involved, where they arrested and charged him.

Charged with fail to remain and impaired driving is Andrew Ford, 27, of Milton.

Police were called to a 10 Sideroad residence about 4 a.m. Sunday because a suspicious vehicle was parked at the end of a driveway. Upon arrival police arrested and charged the occupant of the vehicle.

Charged with care and control and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood is Brian Huechert, 35, of Waterloo.

Halton Police are looking for a group of teenagers who took drinks from three youths who were walking home from the 7-Eleven store on Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown about 11 p.m. Saturday.

The teens took the drinks and threatened to harm the youths if they didn't immediately leave. As the youths were leaving on their bicycles one of the teens pushed the youth off his bike, who was not injured.

The youths went home and reported the incident to police. Police searched the area but did not find the teens.
