Elections Canada is seeking a

Returning Officer

for the electoral district of:

- Halton

An opportunity to serve democracy

Returning officers are responsible for administering the electoral process in a federal electoral district. The work is varied, challenging and rewarding. You need to have management experience and strong skills in the areas of project management, finance and human resources. You must also possess computer skills.

To qualify for the position of returning officer, you must:

- be a Canadian citizen
- be at least 18 years of age
- reside in the electoral district for which you are applying

Returning officers are appointed for a 10-year period and are responsible for ensuring the integrity of the electoral process. They must remain non-partisan throughout their period in office.

Remuneration is governed by regulation. Current fees for an election period are approximately $21,500. The hourly rate for special assignments between elections (approximately 200 hours per year) is $45.32 per hour. These rates are subject to annual review.

Visit Elections Canada's Web site at www.elections.ca. Click on "Returning Officer" to download the application form, the job description and other relevant documents. For more information or for a copy of these documents, you may also call 1-800-463-6868.

Applications must be received by midnight on Wednesday, May 12, 2010.

Cette offre d'emploi est également disponible en français à www.elections.ca.

Elections Canada is an independent body set up by Parliament to conduct federal elections, by-elections and referendums.
