ALS group honoured

The organizing committee of the Georgetown, WALK for ALS received the 2009 Exceptional Fundraising Award from the ALS Society of Canada during an awards ceremony in Toronto Saturday.

Under the leadership of Melanie Franke, the Georgetown WALK for ALS committee banded together to support Dr. Jeff Sutherland, who was diagnosed with ALS more than two years ago.

"It's because of what he's done in the community, not just because he's a great doctor," says Franke, who spearheaded the first-ever Georgetown Walk.

Beginning in the fall of 2009, the Walk committee grew into a large group of dedicated volunteers. After initially setting a goal of $10,000, the committee went on to raise $240,000, with more than 1,500 participants, becoming the largest and most successful Walk in Canada.
