LNH to run a new training program for the unemployed

Unemployed? Would you like to upgrade your technology skills for the workplace?

A new training program is now available in Georgetown, Acton and Milton for adults who are unemployed and lack the technology skills to use a computer. Individuals can apply to attend a 10-week course on basic technology and online learning to assist them in securing employment. Courses will be running through June and July— daytime and evening courses available. Limited places available.

Call 905-873-2200 for assessment and registration information. (Please note our offices are closed Fridays.)

Wanted: volunteer tutors

We need volunteer tutors in Milton

Literacy Matters

905-873-2200

both daytime and evenings.

Can you assist another adult with their reading, comprehension, writing, math or basic computer skills? Would you like to give something back to your community? Can you volunteer for three hours per week for a minimum of six months?

Information available on our website at www.literacynh.org. If interested, please call to make an appointment 905-873-2200.
