Around town...in pictures

At the recent re-opening of Acton Town Hall Centre, Town Hall chair Ron Birrell and fundraising chair Kathleen Dills (right) were presented with commemorative coathooks made from leftover trim. (Left) Many participants like Father Robert Bulbrook were decked out in century-old attire. The hall, originally built in 1882, was once earmarked for demolition but a community-driven restoration project spanning decades, saved it.
