

Cruisin' cops

A Halton Regional Police Service team, comprised of HRPS uniform officers, their families and friends, senior management, COPP volunteers and auxiliary police, raised $3,417 during their ride with the Heart and Stroke Foundation's Big Bike recently. Two other groups took part as well, with Wal-Mart employees raising $977 (plus a corporate match) and ALCOA employees raising $1,283.

Fogal, Johnson join election race

Two more Halton Hills council members have filed nomination papers to seek re-election in the Oct. 25 municipal elections.

Wards 3&4 Regional Councillor Jane Fogal and Ward 3 Councillor Moya Johnson both filed on Friday.

Fogal was first elected in 1997 as the Ward 3 local councillor and moved up to the regional level in 2003.

Johnson has served 16 years on council, since being elected as Ward 3's local councillor in 1994.

All current members of council, with the exception of the Ward 1 (Acton) councillors have now registered as candidates for re-election. The last chance to file nomination papers is September 10.
