

Frustrated with your builder-quality CRAPPY toilet?

Upgrade to a revolutionary 3 litre design and upgrade performance.

Thinking of a Rain Barrel?

Why not choose a method to reduce your water usage by thousands of litres per year, PER TOILET and save money 7 days a week, 52 weeks a year.

You will receive:

- a $75 rebate from the Halton Region<sup>1</sup>
- a complete installation including toilet<sup>1</sup>, seat, all necessary hardware and removal of your old toilet.

*Our mission is –
"to preserve water for tomorrow, by reducing water usage today"*

Local volunteers honoured by Region

Four Halton Hills volunteers were among 16 from across Halton recently recognized at a volunteer breakfast hosted by Halton Region and Volunteer Halton in honour of National Volunteer Week.

The Cheers to Volunteers and Community Volunteer awards provide local organizations with a way to acknowledge volunteers for the contributions they make.

Felice Butterfield, of Limehouse Public School was given a Community Volunteer Award for outstanding volunteer contribution while Cheers to Volunteers honours, which are chosen at random and are awarded on behalf of the volunteer's agency, were given to Dave Williams (Links2Care), Karen Sherratt (Gardiner Public School) and Angela Pohl (Limehouse Public School Healthy Snack Program).
