June is a happening month at the Seniors' Centre

By FLORENCE RIEHL
Georgetown Seniors Centre

What a fantastic couple of weeks. The grass looks like a green carpet and it seems everyone is busy planting all those beautiful flowers. Golf is in full swing and hockey play-offs are still going on.

June is a busy month at the Centre, sort of a wind down for summer. The annual Variety Night starts the month off with their show of local talent on Tuesday, June 1 beginning at 7 p.m. No tickets necessary.

The next day, June 2, Mingle and Chat have an auction at 10 a.m. Come, take part in this fun by bringing a wrapped gift and bidding on the surprise gifts. Bids run from $1-$5. You never know what you are buying but, one thing for sure, you'll know you are going to have lots of fun.

The Town of Halton Hills is holding a volunteer recognition celebration at the Gellet Centre, Tuesday, June 8, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. You should have received your invitation by now.

This year our Centre celebrates 15 years of service to local seniors. We are holding a chicken barbecue on Friday, June 18 beginning at 5 p.m. Enjoy barbecue chicken, salads, rolls, dessert, & tea/coffee. There will be entertainment and loads of fun. Tickets are $15 and available at reception.

The GSC Art Group are having a show and sale at Art Effect on Guelph Street, June 14-26. Meet the artists the evening of June 15 from 7-9 p.m.

I have contacted most of you to remind you that payment is due for the Port Dover trip.

The signup sheet is available on the Travel Desk for the intergenerational trip to the Toronto Zoo on Wednesday, August 18. This is an opportunity for members to bring their friends, their children and/or grandchildren. You don't have to walk, you can take the little train. I have been told the zoo has a huge splash pad!

Enjoy this wonderful weather!
