

Focus On Your Photos

After growing out her hair for three years, Georgetown District High School student Shaunna Neilson (right) was finally ready to cut it off and donate it to Angel Hair for Kids. Anna Scatozza from Norval's Adamson Spa had the honour of cutting off 14 inches of hair. "I'm not just giving hair for a wig, I'm giving another girl hope," Shaunna says. In the future, Shaunna hopes to bake and sell cupcakes with proceeds going to cancer research.
Photo submitted by Leighanne Neilson

ABOVE LEFT: Dancers from Ballroom Health competed in the Spring DanceSport Challenge in Stony Creek last month and won first place in the Canadian National Group Routine Championships. On hand for the trophy presentation were (from left) Sylvia Reilly, Christabelle Collins, Laura Desroches, Thomas Hooker, Lynda Pike, Rosemarie Châles, Wendy Moore and Carol Alker. Missing from the photo: Lorraine Capreol, Jo-Ann Moolenar and Sheila Scott. ABOVE RIGHT: Ballroom Health owners and instructors Rosemarie Châles and Thomas Hooker placed seventh in the Open Silver Canadian National Pro-Am Couples Latin Routines – Cha-Cha. Congratulations!
Photos submitted by Rosemarie Châles

The Halton Hills Bulldogs and Boston Pizza recently held an event that raised $400 for Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills. On hand for the cheque presentation are (from left): Bulldog Nik Matwijszyn, Becky Hunt and Sarah Black from Boston Pizza, CASHh president Joanne Markus and Bulldog Kody Lyons.
Photo submitted by Mike Hancock

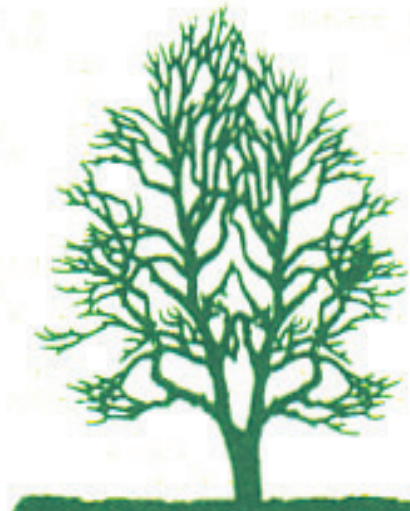

LEFT: During a recent visit to Hamilton, Griselda Delgado del Carpio, Bishop of Cuba, made a trip to Glen Williams where she visited the members of St. Alban the Martyr Anglican Church. Bishop Delgado was in Canada to attend Justice Camp, a gathering to discuss and learn about social justice issues such as hunger and violence.
Photo submitted by Aaron Orear

Canadian Federation of University Women executive Eunice McGowan, CFUW-Georgetown president Maxine Baker and Georgetown Hospital COO Cindy McDonnell chat at the CFUW's May Dinner. As the guest speaker, McDonnell outlined the ways the hospital distinguishes itself, its recent successes and future acquisitions.
Photo submitted by Diane McDermott

TREE TRIMMING ♦ TREE & STUMP REMOVAL ♦ HYDRO LINE CLEARING
FREE ESTIMATES ♦ FULLY INSURED ♦ 15 YEARS EXPERIENCE

QUALITY

TREE SERVICE

Murray Anderson 905-873-6982 OFFICE

25 TREANOR CRES., GEORGETOWN, ON L7G 5H8
CERTIFIED PROVINCIAL ARBORIST