Crashes keep emergency crews busy

Halton Police were busy last Thursday with two major accidents on area roadways in which people were injured.

Three people were injured— one seriously— in a multi-vehicle collision on Maple Ave. at Guelph St. Thursday afternoon.

A 55-year-old Georgetown woman received life-threatening injuries in that crash.

Halton Police say about 4:30 p.m. a Dodge Caravan driven by a 62-year-old Georgetown man southeast on Mountainview Rd. struck a vehicle in the intersection of Maple Ave. and Mountainview.

The Caravan driver then continued southwest on Maple Ave. without stopping at the scene of that collision.

As the Caravan continued along Maple Ave. it collided with an Acura, driven by the 55-year-old woman, near the intersection of Guelph St.
