Police blotter: Incident 'unfounded'

Halton Police report an incident in Acton, in which a male wearing a ski mask and cowboy hat ordered a nine-year-old boy into his truck on Cobblehill Rd. last Tuesday afternoon, did not happen.

A police investigation has determined the incident was "unfounded." Police had issued a public warning after receiving the report. Three other incidents of youths being approached by a man in a silver four-door car in Acton occurred April 29, May 1 and May 3.

A Halton Hills woman is facing charges after police stopped a vehicle at Main St. and Maple Ave. about 1:15 a.m. Saturday. Police say the driver failed to provide a breath sample, struggled with police and attempted to flee. Police say they also found a quantity of marijuana on the woman.

Charged with obstruct and resist police, possession of a controlled substance, impaired driving and failing to provide a breath sample is Holly Keene, 37.

An Acton man was charged with assault in connection with the attempted theft of a bicycle from a Mill St. W., Acton residence about 3 p.m. Sunday.

Police say a man fought with a resident of the home while attempting to take his bicycle. Charged with assault is Bradley Williams, 36. The victim, a 20-year-old Acton man, wasn't injured.
