First setback of season for 'Dogs

So much for the battle of the Ontario Lacrosse Association Jr. B unbeaten teams.

The Halton Hills Bulldogs were overrun 13-10 by a strong Newmarket Saints' side last Thursday in Georgetown, handing the hosts their first loss in 13 regular-season starts.

Coach Blaine McCauley said his canine crew may have been guilty of looking ahead to this Thursday's clash with the 16-0-0 Green Gaels of Clarington in Bowmanville, but the 11-4-0 Saints had plenty of motivation, having been eliminated by Halton Hills from the past two post-seasons.

Brendan MacDonald (3), Jordan Dance, Connor Sellars, Peter Laidlaw, Seth Laidlaw, Tyler Ferreira, Jayson Crawford and Shane Scott scored for the hosts, who will visit Toronto tonight (Tuesday) to take on the Beaches.

Halton Hills got back into the win column Saturday with an 11-2 trouncing of guest Huntsville.

Justin Reid and Mike Licata had hat-tricks for the 'Dogs, with Dance, Sellars, call-up Jamie Batten, Ferreira and Crawford finding net.

The Bulldogs beefed up their offence Sunday by picking up 20-year-old Dylan Gilbert, a former 30-goal scorer with the Oakville Jr. B Buzz.

The 6-foot-1, 200-pound Mississauga resident is the son of former NHLer Greg Gilbert and had eight goals and 18 assists in 10 games with the Buzz this season.

Renton grabs OFSAA gold

Christ the King Secondary School's Tyler Renton was looking for an upgrade from last year's bronze medal at the provincial championships and the Grade 10 student was golden this time around.

Renton launched his javelin 59.69m to win the junior boys' category by nearly a metre over the runner-up at the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations track & field championships at the University of Western Ontario over the weekend.

The Team Ontario member just missed out on another medal in the junior boys' shot put, finishing fourth at 17.05m, with the silver medalist recording a throw of 17.15m.

CtK's Khalil Smith was 20th in the midget boys' triple jump with a leap of 11.82m.

SOCCER: For the second year in a row, the Acton Bearcats advanced to the OFSAA quarterfinals at last week's tournament in Sudbury before bowing out with a 4-2 loss against Barrie's Nouvelle Alliance. Kaylee Kearns and Jenn Baker scored for the Bearcats, who went 1-2-0 in the preliminaries and advanced to the quarterfinals on a tiebreaker.
