GDHS Battle raises cash for Haiti

David Sim of the band, Half Beat, wailed it out as students of GDHS and organizing committees, Hearts of Haiti and Student Parliament joined forces to raise funds to aid building schools in Haiti by holding a Battle of the Bands. Two local bands, Consider it Wednesday and Half Beat performed in the school cafeteria to approximately 500 students. Tickets were $2 each, and the event raised a total of $1,000 which will go directly to the construction of schools in earthquake ravaged Haiti. GDHS students have already raised $500 for their Hearts for Haiti campaign, set up immediately following the January 2010 earthquake.

Wastewise supports local efforts

Above, WasteWise manager Debbie Smart presents a cheque for $1,830 to GDHS student Zach Borocsik, 16, and co-op education teacher Donna Harrie. The funds are in support of the new GDHS "Earth" program, which stresses environmental awareness and leadership. Similarly, below, Smart presents $1,000 cheque to Bert O'Hearn, Acton District High School principal. Waste-wise also presented a $500 cheque to Gardiner Public School to hold an Eco-Fair. Wastewise also received a donation from Glen resident Dave Cox.
