SITUATION CRITICAL

The crisis in long-term care

Ontario's long-term care system is paralyzed, and failing its most vulnerable residents.

More than 600 government-funded homes are supposed to provide high-quality, round-the-clock care to the frail elderly.

Metroland's special report shows seniors languishing on record wait lists, entangled in bureaucracy and subject to pressure tactics that jeopardize their rights.

The first in a four-part series can be found on-line at:

Police blotter: Limehouse home entered

Halton Police are investigating a break and enter into a Sixth Line Limehouse residence that occurred between noon and about 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Electronic equipment and jewelry valued at $5,000 in total were taken. Entry was gained through a forced rear door.

A 2008 white Mazda M3 valued at $20,000 was stolen from the carpool lot at Trafalgar Rd. and Hwy. 401 sometime between Friday and Monday. The plate on the car is BDMP365.

Two vehicles at a home on Academy

Rd. were entered sometime late Sunday or early Monday. Taken from one was a wedding ring and change valued at $600. Nothing was taken from the other.
