with a large turnout of both cars and spectators at Cedarvale Park.

"It was busy all day," said Chris Miller, an organizer and master of ceremonies for the car show.

"It was one of our best shows."

Proceeds from the show go to the Childhood Cancer Campaign.

The Canadian Motorcycle Cruisers Show and Shine for Autism Halton was another popular event at Price Chopper on Guelph Street in Georgetown.

Sharkey said there was great support from the community for the Big Daddy Festival.

"The number of community groups that stepped up to lead an activity was stunning," said Sharkey.

She said the event was designed to honour dads, and it did just that.

"The dads were beaming," she said.

Plans are already underway for next year's festival.
