IN MEMORIAM

EDWARDS, Lee Anne

September 20th, 1955 - June 17th, 2009

Don't grieve for me now, I'm free,
I've followed the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Work left undone must stay that way,
I found God's peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Please fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Are things that will be missed.
Do not be burdened with grief and sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't be weighed down with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and rejoice with me,
God wanted me now. He set me free.

Love Bruce, Jeffery, Deidre and Alex

AHS among Canada's best

Norbert Axtmann's Tech Design classes at Acton High School recently prepared design responses to a series of challenges for the 2010 Sears/Design Exchange High School Design Competition as part of their term work. The Canada-wide contest challenges students to create useable consumer products within a given set of parameters. Design professionals from across the province recently converged on downtown Toronto to judge the entries, and Acton students once again did well with Jesse Voelkner (right) earning third place in the Architecture/Interior Design Senior Category (Grades 11 & 12) and Jonathan Van Oosten (left) receiving the Honourable Mention in the Architecture/Interior Design Junior Category (Grade 9 & 10). The Architecture/Interior Design challenge in both grade groups required students to design and model a contemporary and sustainable bus shelter. Their work will be on display at the Design Exchange (DX) in Toronto until July 12.

Oppel visits Freckled Lion

Award-winning Canadian author, Kenneth Oppel, was at the Freckled Lion recently to discuss his writing with the store's book clubs at their end-of-year event. Cameron MacColl, from the '11 and '12' group, shows off his signed copy of Oppel's popular Airborn.

New directions

At the Village Montessori graduation exercises in Glen Williams, students 5-year-old Anjela Gregori and 4-year-old Eric Pfohl mimicked owner Kim McMahon as they performed for their parents.

Learning about philanthropy

At the Christ the King Secondary School's Youth Philanthropy Initiative final competition, Acton Foodshare was chosen for the recipient of the cash donation. Through the program, Grade 10 students are divided into groups to research a charity and put together a 10-minute presentation on their charity and how a grant would help it achieve its mission and better serve its clients. CtK students (from left) Greg Slowka (representing Foodshare), and Grade 12 judges Michael Conte, Sarah Capaz and Joanna Ryan, announced the winner after deliberation.
