

Local connection to G8

Tara Marsh has a fishy connection to the upcoming G8 summit in Huntsville. The Williams Mill glass artist and her colleague David Thai created one-of-a-kind fish sculptures that will be in front of each leader during the talks. Marsh only had a week to complete the 12 glass sculptures, which included a few extras in case any break on the trip to Huntsville.

Yoga in the Park begins soon

Yoga in the Park returns this summer to Prospect Park in Acton, starting on Thursday, July 8.

Presented by Leanne Monaghan of Staying Alive Fitness, the program is a seven-week fundraiser for the Upper Credit Humane Society. Yoga classes are free and open to all skill levels, with a donation of your choice (food, supplies, money) for the animals at the UCHS; yoga mats will also be available for rental for $2, all proceeds go to the shelter.

Registration at 6:30 p.m., class, 7-8 p.m.

Yoga in the Park is a perfect opportunity to get fit and know you are helping the UCHS shelter animals as they wait to get permanent homes. Weather permitting.

Last year Yoga in the Park raised over $1,000, along with food and supplies for the animals! Info: Staying Alive Fitness, 519-853-2650 or info@stayingalivefitness.com
