CARDS OF THANKS

THANK You to the Halton Hills Sports Museum and Resource Centre for the Induction Ceremony and Gala for their Hall of Fame. I was honoured, on behalf of my late husband, Dave Armstrong. Dave along with his good friends Walt Dixon and Frank VandeValk were inducted and recognized for their teamwork with regard to Drag Racing and for their contributions to the community. Thanks also go out to Walt, Frank, and all my friends and family, from the heart, for making my evening truly memorable. Memories are always best when shared with friends and family.

Hazel Armstrong

JUDY, Earl Burt and family would like to say a warm hearted thank you to our families, friends and neighbours for their numerous phone calls, cards, food and flowers that arrived at our home during my surgery, hospital stay and since coming home. Also thank you to the CCAC nurses for their help and understanding. All of your kind gestures and thoughtfulness are very much appreciated and will be remembered forever.

Local kids help jump-start program

start. Canadian Tire Jumpstart gives children from families who require financial assistance the opportunity to participate in sport and recreation activities. To date, Halton Hills Canadian Tire Jumpstart has assisted almost 300 children participate in sport and recreation activities in this community. This has been done through sponsorship of over $63,000. Since its inception, the number of applications currently being received has grown by 160% so the need is greater than ever. ## Having a blast at CtK

Cloudy skies didn't dim the enthusiasm of the participants at Christ the King Catholic Secondary School's second-annual Summer Blast fundraiser recently. Summer Blast was created to support the CtK Cares program, which benefits several of the school's teams and clubs. Organizers estimate the final fundraising figure to be between $10-12,000, bringing the two-year total to close to $20,000.

Tim Horton's Camp Day

Tim Horton's shops across Canada took part in Camp Day activities, and Georgetown locations were no exception, as staffer Jessica Whelan and head supervisor Amanda Roach took their turns pouring coffee.

Harrison's Jungle Book

In Harrison Public School's production of The Jungle Book, Mowgli (Josh Rousseau, right) hugs the bear Baloo (Jason Martin) as he tries to find his place in the jungle. The show featured 50 Grade 4 and 5 students in the main cast and every class from Grades 1-5 participated as well, performing four shows in total.
