Risk Watch Safety Blitz

Paramedics Adam Sellors and Anna Freyter stabilize their "patient," Kyle Sharpe, to a board while his classmates, Mackenzie Robertson, Jake Case and Lauren Harrison supervise.

TOP RIGHT: St. Joseph School teacher Anna Malczewski makes sure Nicki's bike helmet is adjusted properly.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Matthew Cull, Trevor Newman, Christeen Barnes, Isaac Daleman and Ben say hi to a winking Freddy the Firetruck.

Halton Hills is much safer thanks to the lessons learned at the annual Risk Watch Safety Blitz. Hundreds of grade 4 students from local schools took a trip to the Gellert Centre on June 15 and 16 to attend the outdoor event, which included representatives from the Ontario Provincial Police, the Halton Regional Police Service, the CN Police, the Halton Region EMS, the Halton Hills Fire Department and the Halton Hills Recreation & Parks Department. Through fun displays, games and interactive elements, the students learned how to keep safe this summer. Stay safe, Halton Hills!
