Harris selected for OMHA under-16s

Georgetown teen Jacob Harris has been chosen to participate in an Ontario Minor Hockey Association tryout tournament in August to determine the roster for Team Ontario's under-16 entry in the 2011 Canada Winter Games. The six-foot, 185-pound centre captained the Halton Hurricanes to the OMHA bantam AAA championship title and a bronze-medal showing at the OHF finals this past March. Harris, 15, is among 14 forwards in the Team OMHA lineup that will play in a six-team tournament in Kitchener Aug. 12-15, and the top players selected from that event moving on to represent this province at the Canada Winter Games next February in Halifax.

Guess who's turning 40...???
