OHA honours Hooper with Gold Stick

For the second straight year, the recipient of the Ontario Hockey Association's prestigious Gold Stick Award is a Halton Hills resident. Bob Hooper (right) was recently presented with the award at the OHA's 121st annual general meeting in Alliston. The Glen Williams native played and coached minor hockey in Georgetown, later moving on to be an executive member on a number of junior and intermediate-level clubs. He was also president of the Georgetown Intermediate A Raider team that won the Hardy Cup in 1982 and served as commissioner of the OHA Provincial Jr. A Hockey League from 1996 to 2009. Georgetown's Bryan Lewis received the Gold Stick Award in 2009.
