ABRAY, (Samuel) Glen

He will be missed by his wife of 53 years, Barbara, his two children, Suzanne and Tim and their families, spouses Paul and Jacline and grandchildren Sam and Elle. Glen is survived by his two sisters, Doreen and Betty. Glen's last days were perfectly in keeping with his long and fortunate life: passionate, caring, impatient and decisive. He was determined to express gratitude for his life and spent many of his final hours encouraging others to see the joy and good fortune he experienced in his 78 years. He felt fortunate to have so many good friends and colleagues and wished he could tell each and every person in his life what they had meant to him. IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Patricia Knapp

The Wind.
The passion of the gale,
The touch of soft caress,
This is your life,
No more, nor less.
Your destiny the stars,
Your home the endless space,
Nor chains you know,
Nor time, nor place.

The stirring of the dawn,
The whisper of the trees,
Your gentle breath,
That is the breeze.

The mystics of the night,
The low uncanny moon,
The world asleep,
And you alone.

The ancient master brush,
That works the sunset lure,
That twilight dims,
To depths obscure.
Your voice the song of storm,
Of fragrant gentle sigh,
That strikes the cord,
Then bids goodbye.

Go, on your way unseen,
By daylight or by night,
No mortal hand,
Shall stay your flight.

James C. Singer

*Forever missed,
Ron and Family*

IN MEMORIAM

SHIRLEY CHAPLIN
January 24th, 1935 - July 3rd, 2009
In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother

The blow was great, the shock severe,
We little thought the end was near,
And only those who have lost can tell,
The pain of parting without farewell.
Though absent you are very near,
Still loved, still missed, and very dear,
Always in our thoughts,
Forever in our hearts.

*Lovingly remembered by,
Wendy, Paul, David and families*
