IN MEMORIAM

COURTNEY GASCHO

In memory of our precious daughter who died ten very long years ago on July 31st, 2000.

Like a flower still blooming,
You live in our hearts.
Like a candle still glowing,
You exist in our minds.
Like the very air we breathe in,
we can never do without you.
And just like a beautiful melody,
You are our never ending song.
A sweet serenade, muted on earth
But loudly heard by our souls.
And as we face this mountain of grief,
Our tears become a fountain of love.
Soaring high into the heavens,
Arms stretched to embrace you.

Loved and missed more than words can describe by dad, mom and Shane

PET DEATH

Purdie Doubt

February 17th, 1995 - July 25th, 2010

Beloved pet of Eric Doubt and Cathy Champagne of 26 James Street. She never met a living thing she didn't like and everyone who knew her loved her. She was trained to bring in the mail and paper every day, put things in the blue box and retrieve slippers. Such a gentle, sweet soul, uncomplaining to the end, with a constantly wagging tail. We sometimes called her "Black Magic" or "Purdie the Wonder Dog" because she was so special. She lived to be a ripe old age and enjoyed every minute of her long life. Her last trip to the cottage was especially good and included swimming and visiting with many family members. She will be dearly missed by many and forever in our hearts. Thanks to Dr. Aviva Rothman-Wieling, Dr. Tony Pacevicius, the staff of Halton Hills Veterinary, and Wendi Wolf (Borg) for their kindness.

CARDS OF THANKS

THE family of the late Marnie Cleave wish to express their sincere appreciation to their relatives, neighbours and friends for their expressions of kindness in the loss of our mother. Special thanks for cards, flowers and donations. They were most welcome during this time. To the Reverend Peter Barrow your kind words were a comfort to everyone. To the JS Jones Funeral Home we would like to thank you for the lunch arranged on our behalf for family and friends and for your compassion which gave us peace at this difficult time.
