

Is it time to move out or build up?

Homeowners often ask: should I sell or renovate? When a home no longer meets your needs or you simply fall out of love with it, you may be looking for a change. But deciding what kind of change, renovating or moving altogether, is a big decision.

"There are many mortgage and line of credit options to help make moving or renovating easier," says Farhaneh Haque, Regional Sales Manager, Mobile Mortgage Specialists, TD Canada Trust. "Speak with your local mortgage expert who can help you make an informed decision based on your life stage."

There are pros and cons for moving or renovating:

Move to a new home

Pros

- Offers a fresh start and you will avoid the disruption of renovations
  - Allows you to address the biggest issue you can't change with renovations: location

Cons

- Additional costs such as real estate es, legal fees, land transfer tax and owing expenses
  - Green shag carpet may not be your ste - you may need to change the dé or of the previous owner

Renovate your existing home

Pros

- Lets you keep what you like about your current home and change only what you don't like
    - Keeps your family from being uprooted (except during a major renovation where you may need to move out for a period of time)

Don't lose sleep over your mortgage needs

Taking out a mortgage is a big financial commitment — probably one of the biggest you'll ever make. From deciding whether to go with a fixed or variable rate, to determining how long you'll need to pay off your mortgage, to figuring out how much you can afford to borrow and how much money you'll need to buy and maintain your home, there are many factors to consider.

mortgage based on your income and expenses. The Mortgage Calculator Tool works out your mortgage payment and provides you with a mortgage payment schedule. The calculator also shows how much money and how many years you can save by making prepayments.
