

Studio 97 opens in Georgetown

Studio 97 recently opened at 10 Mountainview Road S., as owner (seated) Alexandra Bojkovski was joined by her staff (in back, from left) Chris Hassell, Patrycia Sibis-towicz and Carla Martinho.

Photo by Ted Brown

SuperWalk in September to raise funds for Parkinson's

The Georgetown Halton Hills Parkinson SuperWalk will be held in Georgetown on Saturday, Sept. 11.

This year is the 20th anniversary of the walk and the goal is to raise $3 million across the country to provide research to find a cure and better treatments and education, support and advocacy for people living with Parkinson's.

The local walk will be held at Gellert Community Centre. Registration will be at 9 a.m., and the walk will begin at 10 a.m.

Last year's Halton Hills SuperWalk raised over $16,500 and more than 200 people took part.

For more information on SuperWalk and to register visit www.parkinsonsuperwalk.ca or call 1-800-565-3000.

HOW TO BE MORE EMPLOYABLE?

BE A MULTI-TALENTED, RESOURCEFUL, EFFECTIVE PROBLEM-SOLVER!

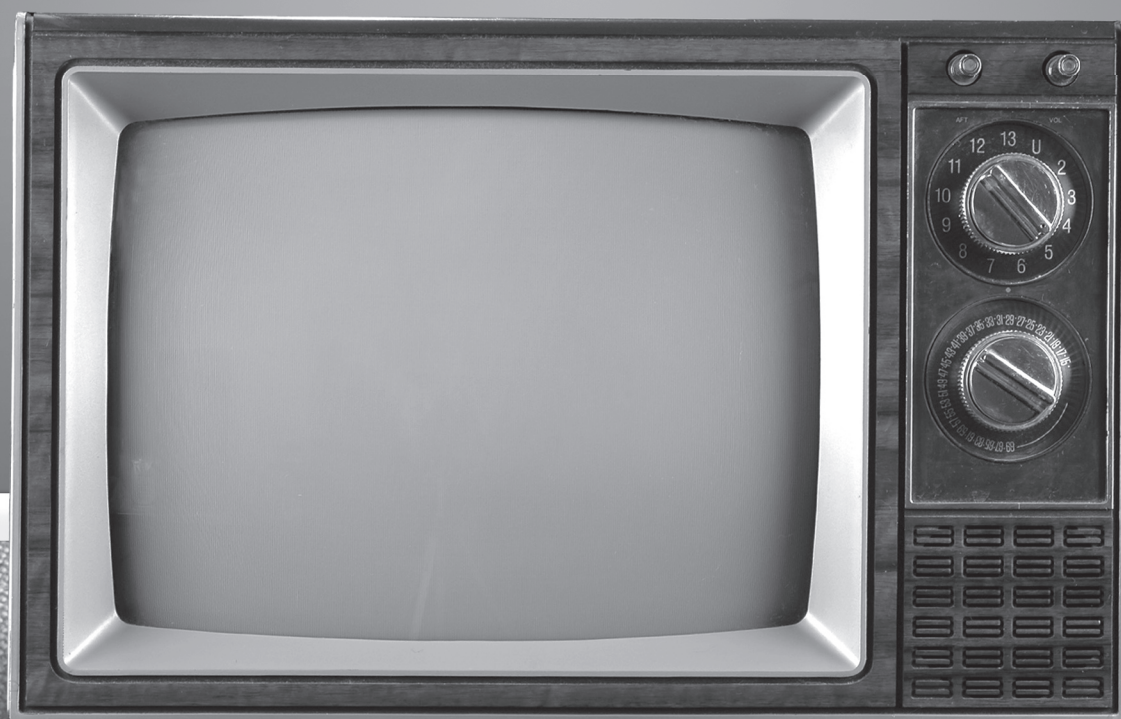

With over 40 diploma and certificate programs and more than 150 courses offered through online learning, evening and weekend classes, you can be more with Humber.

Continuing Education Open House. North Campus, August 31st from 6 - 8 pm

business.humber.ca/ce

Can't give it away? Recycle it.

Recycle your electronics safely at OES-approved collection sites.

To see what's recyclable, where to drop items off and when collection events are coming, check out:

dowhatyoucan.ca

Or call OES customer service at 1-888-646-1820

Ontario Electronic Stewardship – the companies that make and market electronic products – funds this program to divert waste from landfill through reuse and recycling.