Happy anniversary, The Way We Were! This month the ladies consignment boutique, located in the heart of historic downtown Georgetown, is celebrating its first anniversary with a store-wide sale on summer items. The boutique will also have extended hours on Friday, August 20 for the Rock 'N' Roll 'N' Classics Car Show.

The Way We Were carries new and consigned ladies clothing, accessories and shoes for women of all ages, sizes and styles. Wide-ranging fashions include casual, contemporary, formal, career, vintage and fun and funky fashions. The boutique is also the exclusive dealer of Kameleon jewelry, a Canadian line of sterling silver pieces with interchangeable stones.

With new stock arriving daily the boutique's staff can help customers put together a single outfit or build a small wardrobe. Visit The Way We Were for all your back-to-school fashion needs.

Lynne Gravelle has been helping the people of Halton Hills look and feel better for the last 11 years. Lynne, a certified electrologist and laser technician, is the owner and operator of Bare Image Electrolysis and Laser Inc. in downtown Georgetown. As the name suggests, Bare Image offers electrolysis and laser treatments to permanently remove unwanted body hair.

Electrolysis, which takes between six months and a year and half to complete, involves sending a small electric current into the hair follicle to permanently destroy the root. Laser hair removal, which usually requires between four and six treatments to take effect, uses a laser to destroy or impede several hair follicles at a time.

Lynne got started in the field after having permanent hair removal done herself. She had such a positive experience that she enrolled in the Electrolysis College of Canada and became a certified electrologist and laser technician. She then opened her business and has been helping the people of Halton Hills ever since.

"I like making people feel good about themselves by getting rid of the stuff they hate," Lynne says. "Women and men are so busy. I give them one less thing to worry about."

Downtown Georgetown will be rockin' and rollin' on Friday, August 20 for the annual Rock 'N' Roll 'N' Classics Car Show. More than 300 vintage and classic vehicles from the 1920s to 1980 will line the streets of the historic downtown core from 5 to 11 p.m. while attendees rock out to music from Kruz Radio and Rolly Rocker & the Hemi Heads. Proceeds from the car show go to the Georgetown Hospital.

The fun doesn't stop there. Every Saturday morning, Downtown Georgetown comes alive with the sights, sounds and scents of fresh produce, baked goods, crafts and art at the Downtown Georgetown Farmers Market. This weekly market is so popular that it spawned a small Wednesday evening Farmers Market from 4 to 7 p.m. on Wesleyan Street at Main Street South.

Explore Downtown Georgetown. You'll come for the freshness and stay for the fun!

NEW PATIENTS WELCOME

Out of the five senses, sight is without doubt the most solicited and the most used in North American society. To make the most of everything our eyes have to offer, an optometrist should be consulted on a regular basis. A Doctor of Optometry holding a university degree, the optometrist's mission is to ensure that each patient has clear, effective comfortable vision and healthy eyes.

For years, Dr. Bruce Foley has been helping the people of Halton Hills see better. Located at 83 Mill Street in Georgetown, Dr. Foley provides comprehensive vision and ocular health examinations, retinal photography and laser co-management, as well as fashionable eyewear and contact lenses. New patients are always welcome so call today for an appointment.
