Globe Productions seeks local charity to partner for benefit show

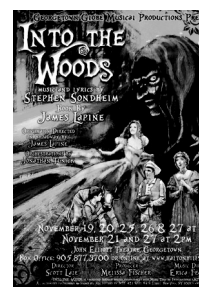

Georgetown Globe Musical Productions is looking for a local charity to partner with for the dress rehearsal performance of Into the Woods—its first show of the 2010-2011 season.

The Tony-Award winning, Broadway hit will run from Friday, Nov. 19 to Saturday, Nov. 27 at the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown. The dress rehearsal takes place on Thursday, Nov. 18 at 8 p.m.

Local charities interested in this unique fundraising opportunity should contact Bobbie Flatt, Into the Woods Publicity Manager, at georgetown_globe@yahoo.ca by Sept. 18.

Into the Woods is based on the book by James Lapine and features music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim. The musical is full of familiar fairy tale characters, living out their stories in the same forest at the same time. It includes, of course, a wicked witch and a menacing giant. The characters are constantly bumping into each other in the woods and becoming entangled in one another's lives. Into the Woods won Tony Awards for Best Book, Best Actress in a Musical and Best Score.

And, as an Early Bird Special offer during the month of September, tickets are only $20 each (regular price $24). Call the Box Office, 905-877-3700 or visit www.halthonhills.ca/theatre to book your tickets now.

Improv Club invites all to summer show

Georgetown Little Improv Club, an offshoot of Georgetown Little Theatre and GLT Youth Company, is proud to present its Third Annual End of Summer Improv Show on Thursday, August 26.

The Improv Club has been working hard all summer on a long-form improv format called The Harold.

What this might entail is a mystery to everyone, including the GLIC!

Showtime is 8 p.m. at The Studio, 33 Stewarttown Road—pay what you can. Info: GLT Studio, 905-877-3422.
