

Willow Park to thank its volunteers

All Willow Park Ecology Centre's volunteers are invited to a special day of celebration on Sunday.

The Annual Volunteer Appreciation Day will be held on Sunday (Aug. 29), from noon until 4 p.m.

Volunteers, their family members and friends are invited to join in on the activities including a Scavenger Hunt, crafts, games, silent auction and barbecue.

Attendees are requested to RSVP to Carolyn Martin, 905-877-2579, carolynmartin@sympatico.ca. This allows the volunteer group to order food; please identify any dietary requests in advance.

Willow Park Ecology Centre is a nature preserve that provides habitat for plants and animals on five acres on the banks of the West Branch of the Credit River in Norval. Entrance to the park is free.
