Woman's death stymies OPP

At the time of her death, she was wearing a pink bra, thong underwear, a tank top and corduroy shorts. All four pieces of clothing were manufactured in Montreal.

No jewelry or identification was found with the woman.

"In spite of the public information provided and the extensive media coverage at the time, the identity of this woman—and that of her potential killer—remains unknown," said OPP Commissioner Chris Lewis, in a media release. "The OPP are appealing to anyone—family members, friends, former colleagues, or someone with knowledge of her past injuries—to come forward to assist us to identify this victim and bring the person(s) responsible for her death to justice."

Anyone with information is asked to contact the OPP at 519-843-4240, your local police service, Crime Stoppers, the Office of the Chief Coroner, or visit the Resolve Initiative website at www.missing-u.ca
