

A woman's work is never done

Rookie plow'woman' Kaitlyn Donaldson of Acton gave it her best shot plowing her land, as she competed for the first time at the annual Halton Plowing Match Friday on Five Sideroad. The event was hosted by Halton Plowman's Association.

Fire calls Domestic incident turns hot

About 11:45 a.m. Sunday Halton Hills firefighters were called to a Day-foot Dr. residence because a mattress was on fire on the lawn.

A fire department spokesperson said the mattress ended up on the lawn in a domestic dispute.

Firefighters ensured the fire was out, and left the incident in the hands of Halton Police.

Halton Hills firefighters were called to a King St. residence Sunday about 12:20 a.m. for a possible lawn fire.

When they arrived, investigation revealed someone had taken a weed-eater from a neighbouring home, emptied the gas out of it onto the sidewalk, then set it on fire.

The fire was out when firefighters arrived. Police were called.

Firefighters were called out about 2 a.m. Sunday to extinguish the remains of a portable outhouse that was on fire in the fairgrounds on Charles St.

The fire was close to the hydro pole and, fearing damage to wiring, Halton Hills Hydro was called to determine if there had been any damage.
