

Spots still available in LNH's computer classes

Unemployed? Would you like to upgrade your computer skills for the workplace?

Literacy North Halton offers a workplace essential skills training program for adults looking for employment. Individuals can apply to attend one of several courses starting in September. Daytime and evening classes will be offered in Milton, Georgetown and Acton.

Computer literacy is now considered an essential skill for anyone wanting to get back to work. This course is open to adults who have no previous experience or very little knowledge of computers and would benefit from a small group learning environment with one-on-one assistance. Space is limited; please call 905-873-2200 for assessment and registration information.

Volunteer tutors needed

We need volunteer tutors in Milton, Georgetown and Acton for both daytime and evenings.

We are looking for adults who can assist another adult with reading, comprehension, writing, math or basic computer skills. If you would like to give something back to your community and can volunteer for three hours/week for a minimum of six months, please call to make an appointment: 905-873-2200.
