Take a Coffee Break at Foodstuffs to aid Alzheimer Society programs

One in 11 Canadians over the age of 65 has Alzheimer's disease or a related dementia.

Coffee Break is the Alzheimer Society's major nationwide annual fundraiser where friends, co-workers and customers gather in communities across Canada to raise funds for local Alzheimer Societies.

Foodstuffs in Downtown Georgetown will be hosting a Coffee Break from Sept. 16 to 25. (Bulk Barn on Guelph St. is also raising funds for the cause; see below.)

Participants at these events make a donation in exchange for a cup of coffee. The money raised stays in the province or community to help support local programs and services.

Even if you've already picked up your "usual" from one of Georgetown's many great restaurants and coffee shops, you can still support the local Alzheimer Society by stopping in at Foodstuffs to "buy" a coffee cut-out or by visiting the Foodstuffs.ca home page for a link to the online Virtual Coffee Break.

The Coffee Break at Foodstuffs will feature local Ultimate Bean coffees brewed fresh for sampling.

Every day there will be a draw for fresh-baked treats, coffees and accessories, and all participants will receive a special edition newsletter filled with recipes, puzzles, coffee lore and nutritional information.

Drop by Foodstuffs at 89 Main St. S. in Downtown Georgetown anytime from September 16 to 25 to join Coffee Break for the local Alzheimer Society. You will be helping someone you know.

Bulk Barn serves up too

Georgetown Bulk Barn owners Shannon and Tim Huchs are adding more 'Coffee Cups' to their window as part of the "Coffee Break" campaign in aid of the Alzheimer Society. The program consists of purchasing a coffee cup for $1 at the check-out, and it will be displayed on the window of the store. All funds collected from all Bulk Barns will be donated to the Alzheimer Society. Tuesday Sept 21 is World Alzheimer's Day, and the program runs until Wednesday Sept 22.
