Classics clipped in final

The newly formed Acton Classics narrowly missed out on making a trip to the national women's club soccer championship in B.C. after a 1-0 loss to the Rexdale Reunited Elites at the Ontario Cup final last Saturday in Vaughan.

As the defending Ontario

Classics champion, Rexdale figured to be the heavy favourite against Acton, which drew players from across the province's south-central region.

Saturday's match appeared to be headed for a shootout before Rexdale struck in the 84th minute on a counter-attack.
